

HELEN

Helen studied Primary Education at Manchester Metropolitan University and graduated with a first class honours degree in 2008. Since then she has accrued 10 years experience as a primary school teacher covering both Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2; teaching children from Years 1 - 6.

Helen is a passionate teacher who embraces a holistic approach to children's education. Helen actively encourages and supports enjoyment in the learning process, to build children's confidence while they develop their skills. Helen is very much a creative teacher, producing and tailoring resources and activities specific to individuals' needs.

In her role as a teacher and also as a parent to 3 young children, Helen is passionate about helping children reach goals and fulfil their potential.
